Ms. Tabbara is a partner at Hagens Berman. She specializes in class actions, including employment discrimination, consumer protection, antitrust, and environmental law. Among her successes, Ms. Tabbara worked on a $1 billion dollar settlement for uninsured individuals against Tenet Healthcare. Currently, her work focuses on consumer protection cases, including Park West Galleries, Inc. Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation and Bayer Corp. Combination Aspirin Products Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation. Ms. Tabbara is also working on the Babies "R" Us class action for antitrust violations and the JP Morgan Silver Futures class action for violation of federal commodities and racketeering laws.

Ms. Tabbara graduated cum laude from Princeton University. She subsequently earned her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center where she served on the Georgetown International Environmental Law Review. For the past two years, she was a trustee for the Federal Bar Association of the Western District of Washington and is a volunteer at the FBA Civil Rights Legal Clinic. She is admitted to practice law in the state of Washington.
