Mr. Fimmel joined Hagens Berman in 2006, bringing more than 13 years of experience working on high-value, document intensive cases. He worked for five years at Oles, Morrison, Rinker & Baker where he was a key member of the litigation team that won a judgment in Idaho Federal District Court involving claims exceeding $400 million. The court sustained an unprecedented termination for default against the Lockheed-Martin Corporation for breach of contract to remediate a nuclear waste site at the Idaho National Engineering Laboratory.

Prior to his work at Oles, Morrison, Rinker & Baker, Mr. Fimmel was an associate for seven years representing Hanford downwinders at the Hanford Litigation Office in Seattle. In a previous life, he was a sports anchor and reporter for KHQ-TV, Spokane's NBC affiliate. Through his senior year at the University of Washington and while attending law school at Lewis & Clark in Portland, Steve was the sports play-by-play and color broadcaster for Seattle's KCTS-TV on Seattle Sounder and Washington Husky basketball telecasts.

Mr. Fimmel is admitted to the Washington State Bar, Federal Court for the Eastern District of Washington, and the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals.
